

Tony Milam -- Trick Shot Golf Show

A PGA Member since 1985, winner of more than 50 professional golf tournaments, former Northern Ohio PGA Section Champion, Ohio Senior Open Champion & Player of the Year, played in several PGA Tour events including the 1987 PGA Championship. Milam served ClubCorp of America for 20 years as a Club Professional at; Inverrary CC in Ft. Lauderdale FL (Home of the famed Jackie Gleason Classic), Montclair CC, in Northern Virginia and Quail Hollow Resort, in Cleveland, Ohio. Milam played NCAA Division I golf at Marshall University in Huntington, WV.

Milam is the Founder and Chairman of The Classic Auto – North Coast Junior Golf Tour, a world-class junior golf tour with 200 active members and over 3,500 Alumni. The tour makes 18 stops annually and has played over 470 events since it started in 1992. Milam was inspired by the Father of American Junior Golf – Frank Emmet, who ran his first junior event in 1927 (the Schoolboy Championship), Milam won Mr. Emmet’s 50th Golden Anniversary Invitational event as a junior player, which was held in the Nation’s Capital. Milam started his golf trick shot artistry in 1982, after meeting and working with Paul Hahn Jr., who’s dad was the founding father of the Trick Shot profession. Today, Milam still performs golf shows for all ages. Recent shows include the Cleveland Open at Stonewater Golf Club, The First Tee of Cleveland, and the PGA Senior Championship at Firestone Country Club.

Show Details

- 30 to 40 minutes in length
- PA System will accommodate up to 1,000 spectators
- Plenty of interaction with the audience
- Lots of fun and humor (For Kids and Adults)

Successful show tips

- The bigger the audience the better
- Avoid overlapping the show with lunch or practice time before a shotgun
- Plan the show after golf, during a cocktail hour or a food function
- Have a food and beverages at the golf show to draw the crowd
- Arrange for two to three rows of seats at the show
- Have seats for up to half the crowd
- Avoid having your audience looking directly into a rising or setting sun

Show Rates

- Cleveland Special - $500 (within one hour of Cleveland)
- Northern Ohio Special - $750 (within 2 hours of Cleveland)
- Road Show - $1,500 plus travel

Booking Info

- Tony’s Desk (440) 354-9162
- tmilam@pga.com
- Deposit of half upon booking

